

Bruce Diederich

Waukegan Roofing Co., Inc.

Bruce Diederich, President and Owner of Waukegan Roofing Co., Inc., has been working in the roofing industry for over 30 years. He has been involved in every aspect of the industry, and brings with him a strong commitment of safety, ethics and excellence. He currently serves as the 2nd Vice President of the CRCA, an organization he has been affiliated with for 10 years. He has also served as the Co-Chairman of the Safety Committee for the CRCA.

In addition to being a CRCA member, he is also a member of the NRCA, where he is a member of the National Legal Resource Center, as well as holding memberships in the MRCA and ASA. He is also a member of several local Chambers of Commerce.

Bruce is a graduate of West Leyden High School, where he met, and later married, Flora. They have been married for 35 happy years. They have two children, Lindsey Donley (husband Steve Donley) and Phillip, and one energetic and wonderful grandson, Nate.