

Anthony J. (Tony) Roque

M.W. Powell Company

Tony Roque is President of M.W. Powell Company. M.W. Powell Company has been providing Roofing services in the Chicagoland Area for more than 160 years and was a charter member of CRCA over 100 years ago. Tony has been involved in the roofing industry most of his life as was his father, Joe, who was a principal of M.W. Powell. Tony's experience from the field starting as an apprentice roofer foreman in 1981 has given him a good background from which to operate the business.

As a member of NRCA, MRCA, Chicagoland Roofing Council (CRC), Builders Trade Association, Building Owners and Managers Association, HACIA, Illinois Department of Central Management Services (CMS) and a 15-year MBE Firm Certified with the City of Chicago, Tony is very involved in the industry.