

Tony Roque

M.W. Powell Company

Tony Roque is President of M.W. Powell Company. M.W. Powell Company was founded in 1847 and Tony is a 7th generation president of this family business. M.W. Powell's founder, Moses Powell, was instrumental in the formation of the CRCA over 100 years ago. Tony has been involved in the roofing industry for 29 years with M.W. Powell. His experience, starting in 1981 as an apprentice, has given him a good background from which to operate the business.

Tony is a co-chairman of the CRCA Program and Trade Show committees. He is a member of NRCA, Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA), MRCA and HACIA.

Tony has been married to his wife, Linda, for 25 years. They have 4 children: Jessica, Daniel, Caleb and Emilee. He has also been involved in coaching youth sports for the past 15 years.